

The Establishment of Keshab's Poultry Farm and Supplier

Keshab Bahadur Kadal, a graduate of Poultry Production Training from Shree Krishna School, Kanchanpur is a resident of Krishnapur-5. Unfortunately, after pursuing his degree, he left for India in search of employment opportunity. After two years of unsatisfactory stay in India, Mr. Kadal returned Nepal with a strong desire of doing something in his own land. After much brainstorming, Mr. Kadal decided to establish a poultry farm. Even though, he lacked knowledge and expertise, Mr. Dhakal started the business with 300 chicks on a leased poultry shed. Although, he was continuously seeking for acquiring technical know-how on poultry farming business.

Keshab's Poultry Farm

In the meantime, Shree Krishna School and Skill Up had decided on providing training to the youths on poultry farming, based on recommendation of market feasibility study. Mr. Dhakal instantly contacted school administration and got himself enrolled. A 60 days training on poultry know how, improved shed and breeds, proper feeding, rearing, disease management and vaccination was provided to the interested youths of the area. Trainees also acquired knowledge and built their skills on preparing a business plan and marketing strategies through various theoretical and practical classes.

Keshab working on his farm

Construction of Keshab's new improved shed

At present, Mr. Dhakal has registered his farm as 'Keshab Poultry Farm and Supplier', and, has expanded his business to around 1000 chicks. Improved shed is under construction which will help him further expand his business. "Training has strengthened my skills and helped develop my confidence on poultry business" said Mr. Dhakal happily. Further, he added that he acquired years of knowledge through this short course, which also became a turning point in his career. He is grateful to the school and the entire project team for this opportunity.